Special Issue: Terrestical Impact Craters and Craterform Structures (edited by L. Pesonen and H. Henkel)

Preface vii
The terrestrial impact cratering record
R.A.F. Grieve (Ottawa Ont., Canada) and L.J. Pesonen (Espoo, Finland) 1
Impact craters and craterform structures in Fennoscandia
H. Henkel (Uppsala, Sweden) and L.J. Pesonen (Espoo, Finland) 31
Traces of impact craters in the geoid
J. Kakkuri (Helsinki, Finland) 41
Characteristics of large terrestrial impact structures as revealed by remote sensing studies
J.B. Garvin, C.C. Schnetzler (Greenbelt, MD, USA) and R.A.F. Grieve (Ottawa Ont.,, Canada) 45
Geophysical aspects of meteorite impact craters in eroded shield environment, with special emphasis on electric resistivity
H. Henkel (Uppsala, Sweden) 63
Geology, stratigraphy and structure of the Lappajärvi meteorite crater, western Finland: preliminary results of deep drilling
F. Pipping (Espoo, Finland) and M. Lehtinen (Helsinki, Finland) 91
Geophysical investigations of the Lake Lappajärvi impact structure, western Finland
S. Elo, T. Jokinen and H. Soininen (Espoo, Finland) 99
Physical properties of kärnäite (impact melt), suevite and impact breccia in the Lappajärvi meteorite crater, Finland
I.T. Kukkonen, L. Kivekäs and M. Paananen (Espoo, Finland) 111
Palaeomagnetism of the Lappajärvi impact structure, western Finland
L.J. Pesonen, N. Marcos and F. Pipping (Espoo, Finland) 123
Ordovician impact crater at Kärdla, Hiiumaa Island, Estonia
V. Puura and K. Suuroja (Tallinn, Estonia) 143
Söderfjärden: a Cambrian impact crater in western Finland
J.J. Lehtovaara (Turku, Finland) 157
Recent studies of the Lake Sääksjärvi meteorite impact crater, southwestern Finland
S. Elo, L. Kivekäs, H. Kujala, S.I. Lahti and P. Pihlaja (Espoo, Finland) 163
Geology of the Early Palaeozoic Lockne impact structure, Central Sweden
M. Lindström and E.F.F. Sturkell (Stockholm, Sweden) 169
Mineral chemistry of the shock-metamorphosed schists of the Lake Jänisjärvi impact structure, Karelia
J. Raitala and T. Halkoaho (Oulu, Finland) 187
Petrological modifications in granitic rocks from the Siljan impact structure: evidence from cathodoluminescence
K. Ramseyer (Bern, Switzerland), A.A. AlDahan, B. Collini (Uppsala, Sweden) and O. Landström (Nyköping, Sweden) 195
On the significance of crater ages: new ages for Dellen (Sweden) and Araguainha (Brazil)
A. Deutsch (Münster, Germany), D. Buhl (Bochum, Germany) and F. Langenhorst (Münster, Germany) 205
Breccias in the basement of a deeply eroded impact structure Sudbury, Canada
V. Müller-Mohr (Münster, Germany) 219
The Onaping Formation of the Sudbury Structure (Canada): an example of allochthonous impact breccias
M. Avermann and P. Brockmeyer (Münster, Germany) 227

Research Papers
Experimental formation of brittle structural assemblages in oblique divergence
J.V. Smith and D.W. Durney (Sydney, N.S.W., Australia) 235
A SEM study of conchoidal structures on fracture surfaces of sandstones
G. Li and K.H.R. Moelle (Newcastle, N.S.W., Australia) 255
Physical modelling of lithosphere subduction in collision zones
A.I. Shemenda (Taiwan, ROC) and A.L. Grocholsky (Moscow, Russia) 273

Fault identification in complexly deformed schist terrains: examples from the USA and Australia
S.E. Johnson (Townsville, Qld., Australia) and A.C. Duncan (Perth, W.A., Australia) 291
Post-orogenic tectonic and thermal history of a rifted continental margin: the Scoresby Sund area, East Greenland
K. Hansen (Copenhagen, Denmark) 309
Structural implications of paleomagnetic data from Pelvoux–Belledonne area (French Alps)
B. Henry (Saint Maur, France) 327
Cadomian vs. Variscan evolution of the Ossa–Morena zone (SW Iberia): field and $^{40}Ar/^{39}Ar$ mineral age constraints
R.D. Dallmeyer (Athens, GA, USA) and C. Quesada (Madrid, Spain) 339
Paleomagnetic data from Umbria (Italy): implications for the rotation of Adria and Mesozoic apparent polar wander paths
J.E.T. Chanell (Gainesville, FL, USA) 365

Letter Section
Fracture-zone tectonics at Zabargad Island, Red Sea (Egypt)
S. Marshak (Urbana, IL, USA), E. Bonatti (Palisades, NY, USA), H. Brueckner (Palisades, Flushing, NY, USA) and T. Paulsen (Urbana, IL, USA) 379

Discussion
Late Caledonian northeastward ophiolite thrusting in the Shetland Islands, U.K. – Refutation
D. Flinn (Liverpool, UK) 387
